ABOUT THE EVENT

Business managers and leaders are facing very challenging times, the current landscape is characterised by significant uncertainty, complexity and changing customer needs and expectations. This environment is testing workforce skills and organisational capacity. Understanding how to plan and execute complex strategies to meet the goals of your organisation is critical for both career and business success.

Strategic thinking brings the big picture into focus. It helps to make visible the connections between multiple causes, stakeholders and interdependencies that are at play within many of the 'wicked problems' that leaders face. It is the responsibility of leaders to recognise critical trends and patterns in their internal and external environments shaping the future of their organisations.

WHAT OUR DELEGATES ARE SAYING

“The training was well paced with a good balance of listening and participation. It was informative and interactive, weaving theory with a practical approach.

Facilitator was knowledgeable and friendly and presented the course content very well. Would recommend this to colleagues in similar positions.”
