ABOUT THE EVENT

Data can be the great enabler, but only in the right hands. Advances in technology have granted easy access to more data than ever before, but while we have the tools and capabilities for data handling and analysis, we often overlook the techniques to effectively display and communicate that data.

In a cluttered and competitive world, a design approach based on instinct or personal taste is no longer sufficient to cope with, let alone exploit, the fantastic opportunities our data repositories present us with. Data visualisation designs communication built on a sophisticated understanding of how our brains process information, including how colours and shapes can become powerfully influential tools.

This hands-on, interactive two-day program has been specially designed to provide the tools, techniques and strategies to create influential data visualisation. Learn how to declutter your data assets and implement scalable, automated, interactive and actionable data visualisation solutions for your organisation.

WHAT OUR DELEGATES ARE SAYING

“The session was great - interactive, interesting and accomodating of our busy schedules and occasional need to focus on other work.

The materials provided were great and appreciated the opportunity to take screenshots :)”

“I really enjoyed the interactive space of the training. It really allowed us to explore the topics we covered and apply that to our own situations at work. I gained a lot of insight and understanding as to how and why some things are the way they are at work.”
