ABOUT THE EVENT

Research shows that leadership cannot be singularly defined and is perceived differently depending on cultural and national differences. Effective leadership is a notion of positive influence, as leadership is strengthened by our customs, beliefs and values.

The Indigenous Women in Leadership Workshop provides an essential platform for aspiring, existing and emerging leaders. This workshop creates a forum to share stories, wisdom and a passion for leading with the body, heart, soul and spirit. Discussions will delve into how we combine our cultural roles with the responsibilities of the business world. We will also explore strategies to effectively put ourselves forward for workplace opportunities.

This two-day virtual event gathers Indigenous women from across the country to reflect on cultural heritage and refine leadership strengths as we pave the way for the next generation of Indigenous leaders.

WHAT OUR DELEGATES ARE SAYING

“ Fantastic initiation to leadership/management with some real practical tools to take back and implement in the workplace. Extremely motivating and thought-provoking. Has Given me an insight into how leadership/management skills influence the workplace ”

“ The session was great - interactive, interesting and accomodating of our busy schedules and occasional need to focus on other work.

The materials provided were great and appreciated the opportunity to take screenshots :) ”
