ABOUT THE EVENT

Aspiring women leaders in the QLD Public Service must display reflective thinking, self-awareness, planning and strategy, but also the confidence and courage to put themselves forward for new opportunities. Ongoing transformations have unlocked new and exciting opportunities for emerging women leaders to step up into senior executive roles.

This workshop will equip women with the tools and practical knowledge to build confidence in their leadership abilities and to best position themselves for career advancement.

Aimed at AO 5-6 level officers and management, this workshop provides you with a unique opportunity to advance core skills for successful leadership. This hands-on, interactive learning session has been designed with both current and emerging leaders in mind. Walk away with a practical leadership plan you can use to navigate a successful career and advance to senior levels!

YOUR FACILITATOR

Miriam is an experienced Executive Coach and registered Psychologist with the ability to have a significant positive impact on people and results. She achieves this by bringing more depth and focus on particular challenges and collaborating with her clients on strategic solutions and personal growth. In her consulting role, Miriam supports individuals, teams and organisations with bespoke coaching and training programs, particularly incorporating positive psychology and neuro-linguistic programming tools. With a special interest in Mind-Body Medicine, Miriam is also the Creator of The Mainspring Method.
